Dear Parent/Carer

Re: BTEC Music – Revision Day

I write to advise that your child's results for the recent performance assessment are very disappointing, and as a consequence, the Music Department will set aside a revision day during the Easter holidays for pupils to come in to re-record their assessments and continue with their coursework.

Attendance at this revision day is compulsory for all pupils. By not attending, your child will be at risk of failing the unit, thus negatively affecting their final grade.

Please speak with your child and remind them of the importance of being committed to their music lessons. This includes completing all classwork and homework, and revising exam material at home.

We would be very grateful for your support in this and hope to see an improvement in your child's efforts and behaviour during their music lesson.

Should you wish to discuss this matter further, please do not hesitate to contact either Mr Gaughran, or Miss Yang, at the school.

Yours sincerely

B Gaughran
